INTRODUCTION

The papers in this collection chronicle the two terms of Governor Hill McAlister. The collection contains 166 boxes of materials including correspondence, subject files, newspaper clippings, bills and resolutions, affidavits, invitations, applications, recommendations, endorsements, requisitions, extradition's, petitions, commutations, and pardons. There are no restrictions on the material, and copies of items may be made for individual or scholarly use.

BIOGRAPHY

From the family of a long line of governors (William Blount, Willie Blount, and Aaron Brown), McAlister was born in Nashville in 1875. He was a Vanderbilt law school graduate and served as city attorney in Nashville. After service in the state senate he served eight years as state treasurer. Losing the race for governor twice, he finally won the nomination in 1932, becoming Tennessee's depression governor. He cut government expenses to the bone and was re-elected in 1934. He was a strong supporter of TVA, friendly to labor concerns, and supported unemployment compensation. He did not seek re-election in 1936, having come into conflict with Memphis mayor Edward H. Crump's giant political machine. McAlister died in 1959.
